

Crystals and Your Home

We fly to crystal shows all over the country in order to hand pick crystals and earth energy that belong to you. These are not stock crystals, they are activated and personally chosen. They come from countries around the world.

Every crystal in your home will have a dual purpose. Not only will it help to transform the energy and feel of your home, but it can also help you improve different areas of your life. We will custom activate each crystal to help you enhance your life, including spiritual growth, peace, abundance or any other goal you have in mind.

Give Your Home A Core Transformation

If you are not in the market for a construction job, you may consider making your home a portal of light. Core Transformation will design a specific combination of crystals, energy stones and writing to create a new frequency for your home. The designs may be hidden from public view or used as decorative or sacred space displays.

On a global scale, the crystals will also emanate the vibrational frequency of peace in you and on the planet as a whole. This can help realign the meridians (energy grids) of the Earth, by creating a point of light/energy. This point will allow energies with higher frequencies to enter the earth and the third dimension, which can create continental healing.

As each home is transformed energetically, it is connected to any and all other homes that have been transformed. This, in turn, creates a network or web of light around the planet. As this network is created, the higher frequencies may freely travel to all parts of the globe, assisting the earth in ascending to the fourth and fifth dimensions.

Core Transformation, LLC

Mission Statement

At Core Transformation LLC, our aim is to not only perform quality work and provide great customer service, but also to assist you in creating a personal sanctuary. Our specialties include:

- Healing for houses, offices and buildings where people live, work and play;
- Transforming areas where the energy is disruptive, uneasy or somehow "off" on or in the earth; and
- Remodeling and construction of all phrases for homes and commercial properties.

Why Core Transformation?

Have you ever walked into your parent's or grandparent's home and felt the aged energy of their living space? Do you ever feel frustrated at how dark or cramped your home feels, but don't know why? When was the last time you walked into a room and felt completely at ease?

Everything around us, from the floor we walk on to the couch we sit on, has its own energy, chi or life force (depending on what you want to call it). This energy may not be visible, but it's almost always tangible on some level and definitely impacts the overall feel of each room. This, in turn, can impact your mood and the way you feel inside your home.

The energy of your home is a reflection of you, as well as the energy of your furniture and belongings, the plot of land your home is built on and the construction of the house. You can change or impact each of these aspects to give your home a completely different feel. This means that you have the power to carve out and create your own dream home, so it looks better on the outside and feels better on the inside.

We use a wide array of physical and metaphysical tools, from paintbrushes and hammers to crystals to create this new feel. The result is life changing, as you and your home become more in tune with the Earth. You will no longer be living in a house on top of the Earth; the Earth will become a part of your home. This means you will finally be consciously relating and connecting to your home.

Transforming your Home's Core Energy

The benefits of a home core transformation are more than just superficial. Yes, your tiling will look gorgeous and your walls will be the perfect shade of yellow, but so much more will also happen. By transforming your home, you will aid your own spiritual/personal growth by resonating at higher energies. Your home will feel better, which will allow you to do what you really need to do. It will also positively affect you and anyone else who enters the space.

Sacred Places

A sacred place is a meditation room, a prayer corner or any space that is best suited for your higher purposes. Core Transformation will transform this space to the highest frequency possible for your own personal growth. We will add high-frequency accents (such as crystals and sacred stones) and use metaphysical techniques to heal the energy of the space. Whether you have an existing sacred space or would like to create an entirely new one, Core Transformation will work with you to customize it. This is for anybody of any faith.

Services

1. Indoor/Outdoor Ponds. A pond can bring new and invigorating energy into your home and garden. This will reconnect you to the earth and to nature so you don't have to search it out far from your home. Instead, you will have it right in your own backyard. Core Transformation will also embed crystals in the pond to enhance its overall energy and look.
3. Decks. Core Transformation can build or upgrade your deck. Each element will be customized from top to bottom and can be inlaid with crystals to energize and beautify your home. This will revitalize existing energy, as well as create new energy around or outside your home.
4. Homes. Core Transformation will help build or remodel the most important rooms in your home. This can include custom tiling, rewiring, plumbing, painting, flooring, carpeting, appliance installation and so much more.
5. Commercial Spaces and Office Buildings. Transform your office building or commercial space to create a lighter and more productive working environment.
