

DIGITAL AND PRINT Publication Production WITH SUBLIME DESIGNS MEDIA

Sublime Designs Media specializes in producing high-end digital and print publications. From design to editing, we are your one-stop-shop for all things publishing.

Our clients trust our proven production solutions. We have a long-standing track record of helping struggling publications get back on track by implementing innovative procedures that help staff (whether volunteer or paid) meet deadlines, improve efficiency, and reduce editor burnout. We then work side-by-side with editors on an ongoing basis to stay on track and improve the quality of content delivered.

Services include:

- Implementing proven production processes and procedures
- Building and restructuring editorial boards
- Administrative assistance
- Editing & style editing including Bluebooking
- Rebranding and/or redesigning a publication
- Design work using an existing template
- Online publications
- Traditional print publications and pre-press work

"Sublime Designs Media has worked with staff at the State Bar of California since early 2002, and we would not have been able to achieve our critical publication goals without their invaluable contributions. Although the demands for perfection placed on Sublime by our high-powered attorney editors are major, they have reliably exceeded our performance expectations in relation to every project.
